

Gettysburg: Tide Turns Against Lee

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY

GETTYSBURG BATTLEFIELD, Pa. (AP)—Men in blue and gray prepared today for a dramatization of the decisive climax of the battle of Gettysburg, fought here 100 years ago.

Gen. George Pickett's charge—a brave but futile effort by 15,000 Confederates to cross a mile of valley and drive the federals off Cemetery Ridge—was launched at 3 p.m. July 3, 1863.

When the attack failed in an inferno of gunfire and hand-to-hand fighting, the greatest battle of the war was decided and, it turned out, the doom of the Confederacy was sealed.

At 3 p.m. EDT today, 500 men in gray with Stars and Bars flying were to cross the fateful field again. At the Bloody Angle of the stone wall, near the same copse of trees where the Confederate advance was stopped, 500 men in blue will reenact the battle.

Boards Will Not Yield to Teachers

By G. K. HODENFIELD
AP Education Writer

DETROIT (AP)—The nation's school boards are not going to yield to strikes, sanctions or boycotts in settlement of disputes with teachers, the president of the National School Boards Association said today.

Mrs. Fred Radke gave that blunt notice to the National Education Association, itself deeply embroiled in arguments about the use of teacher sanctions in Utah.

Mrs. Radke, of Port Angeles, Wash., said teachers' views about salaries and working conditions must be considered, but "the ultimate decision in any of these matters has to be left to the board of education."

Mrs. Radke appeared before the NEA convention to deliver the traditional greetings from the school boards. The "greetings," however, were more in the nature of a polite but firm knucklerapping.

She did not mention the Utah situation specifically, but her remarks were aimed directly at the threatened teacher boycott of classes there next fall.

The Utah teachers have refused to sign contracts for the 1963-64 school year. They have said they are determined not to go back to the classroom until they have assurances that state aid to education will be substantially increased.

Convention delegates all week have been demanding that the NEA invoke sanctions against Utah, an act which would have the effect of blacklisting the state for teachers. The NEA leadership has been reluctant to take this step.

Tourist Car Hits Bike; No Injury

An unidentified Texas car knocked down a bicycle ridden by Donnie Allen, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Allen who operate the Fish Market on West Third St., about 11:30 this morning at the intersection of Third and Main Sts. The boy escaped injury but the bike was damaged.

City police put out an inquiry regarding the Texas auto mobile which failed to stop after brushing the boy.

Hope to Be Honored for Aid to Vets

Monday, July 8, will be a special day in the City of Hope when the American Legion will award to Hope Chamber of Commerce a magnificent trophy at a joint meeting of the Hope Civic Clubs. The trophy was earned by the local Employment Security Division Office for their high ratio of placement of veterans in the local working force.

Visiting dignitaries to be on hand for the presentation include John A. Piennah, Veterans Employment representative, Walter Schrader, State Legion Commander, and Lloyd McDermott, State Adjutant of the American Legion, and John Carns, Field Supervisor for the ESD office.

The award is industry which has done the best job of placing veterans in gainful employment. Hope was the State winner for 1962.

All industries in Hope have been extended invitations to have representatives present for this event. Each industry will have two minutes to tell the story of their operation and their place in local economy.

The presentation will come at the conclusion of these capsule reports. The price of the lunches will be $1.25 for those who are not members of the civic clubs represented. More than 200 people are expected for this occasion at the Hotel Barlow Monday, July 8, at 12 noon.

Crisis for Norwegian Labor Party

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

OSLO, Norway (AP)—Norway's minority labor government named former U.N. Secretary-General Trygve Lie minister of industries today in an attempt to blunt an opposition move to overthrow the government.

The Laborites, in power since 1955, have been rocked by a scattering report on the lack of safety precautions at a state-owned coal mine where 21 miners were killed last November. The report caused the resignation of the former industries minister.

Highlights of July 4th Program at Washington

Here is a summary of the Fourth of July program to guide the thousands from over the state who are expected to jam historic old Washington Thursday:

9 a.m. — Registration at the Old Tavern, followed throughout the morning by guided tours of homes and historic sites. There will be an intermittent program during the morning, with Haskell Jones as master of ceremonies. Don Holcombe of Houston, a Nashville native; Larry Keel, Washington native; and Mrs. Barney Birdwell of Beaumont, soloist, have arranged music.

10:30 — Farrar Newberry, noted historian, will speak.

11 a.m. — 1 p.m. — Luncheon of barbecued chicken will be served on the Tavern lawn. Y. C. Coleman, famed cook, is in charge.

1:30 p.m. — The Grand Lodge of Arkansas, A.F.&M., with William H. Etter in charge of program, will observe the centennial of the moving of Grand Lodge headquarters, along with the state capitol, from Little Rock to Washington.

4 p.m. — Program finale: The Shetland pony "Firecracker," will be given away on a drawing.

Balloon on Flight of 265 Miles

PARAGOULD, Ark. (AP)—This balloon flying business can get nerve-racking, especially when you do it for money—like Mark McDaniel of Paragould.

He lifted a helium-filled balloon in a balloon flying contest sponsored by the Emerson Electric Co. for children of its employees June 15 at a company picnic. The balloon was found at Coalmont Tenn. 265 miles from Paragould.

Until word of the find of his balloon, leader in the contest was Linda Morris, whose balloon drifted to Webber City, Tenn., 190 miles from Paragould.

Each balloon carried a card addressed to Emerson asking the finder to notify the company of the place where the balloon was found.

The contest closes Friday and the winner gets a $25 savings bond.

Beckwith to Face State Court Trial

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Byron de La Beckwith goes before a state judge today for arraignment on murder charges in the sniper slaying of Negro civil rights leader Medgar W. Evers.

Lane Loses Round in Court Fight

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Richard Tyler Lane, charged in Arkansas with kidnapping Little Rock hospital clerk William Bonds, was denied a writ of habeas corpus Tuesday by the California appeals court.

Lane is fighting extradition to Arkansas to face the charges. Gov. Edmund G. Brown has ordered his extradition.

A similar plea by Lane was rejected last week by a superior court.

The appeals court made no comment in its denial of the petition of the 31-year-old professional boxer.

Lane has denied being in Arkansas in the past 15 years. Bonds was kidnapped in April in what the Federal Bureau of Investigation termed an attempt to extort the room number of a man charged with the murder of a North Little Rock policeman.

One of Pair From Prison Surrenders

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Charles (Rabbit) Livingston, who escaped from authorities Monday while being transferred from the Pulaski County Jail to Tucker Prison Farm, surrendered to prison authorities early this morning.

Still at large is James Hoyt Merritt, who escaped along with Livingston.

Gun Museum to Be Viewed on July 4th

Many who celebrate the Fourth of July in Pioneer Washington will be fascinated by the Gun Museum. It is housed in the old Washington Bank building, which has been completely renovated and is now fireproof, air-conditioned and indirectly lighted.

The plate glass windows around all four walls display the famed B. W. Edwards gun collection of more than 600 pieces. These are all conveniently labeled and identified as to age, make, and manufacturer. The collection contains guns of Revolutionary War period through World War I. There are matchlock guns, muzzle loaders, dueling pistols, buffalo rifles, hunting knives, and most interesting of all—a genuine Black-made Bowie Knife.

Five of the windows honor some of Washington and Hempstead County's most distinguished pioneer families—the Roy-stons, McRaes, Conways, Lemleys, Augustus H. Garland, and Brigadier General Evander McMair. General McMair attained the highest rank in the Confederate Army of any man who went from Washington.

The most recently furnished window honors the Civil War governor, Harris Flanagin, who married a Washington belle, Miss Martha Elizabeth Nash. The window also honors Mrs. C. A. Forney founder of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. She organized the Pat Cleburne chapter in Hope on March 7, 1896. This was the first chapter organized west of the Mississippi River. The Flanagin-Forney window was furnished jointly by the Pat Cleburne chapter and the Arkansas Pioneer Association and will be unveiled during ceremonies on July 4.

Visitors will also enjoy a visit to the anti-bellum—Trimble House. They will be graciously received by two granddaughters of the builder and first occupant, Judge John D. Trimble, who came here from Kentucky in 1838 and was a pre-war County Judge and Washington merchant.

Mrs. Mattie T. Wilson and Mrs. Nolie T. Butler, the granddaughters, will show visitors his neatly-kept account books; the family silver, made by a local silversmith of silver dollars; and the original and handsome antique furniture which he bought in New Orleans and brought by flatboat to Camden, then overland by ox-wagon to Washington.

J. Mitchell Dies, Rites Wednesday

JAMES MITCHELL, 87, died Tuesday in a local rest home. He was a member of First Baptist Church, a retired farmer, and lived most of his life in Hempstead county and the Columbus community.

His only survivors include several nieces and nephews. Services will be at 2:30 Wednesday in the Oakcrest chapel with the Rev. John Finn officiating. Entombment will be in Columbus cemetery, Columbus with Oakcrest Funeral Home in charge.

Nostalgia Sets in Early and Rapidly Gets Worse, Opines Philosopher Boyle

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—One of life's greatest pleasures is recalling the past.

Nostalgia begins very early. As a boy grows older and has more to recall, nostalgia will play a larger role in his life. You're probably pretty much of a yore-dreamer yourself, if you can turn back the clock of thought and remember when—

More people drank cream soda pop than any other flavor. Lon Chaney scared more film fans than Boris Karloff and "King Kong" put together. Remember him in "Phantom of the Opera" and Hunchback of Notre Dame?

When you changed a nickel, two of the five pennies you got back would have Indian heads on them. The most widespread forms of gambling in America were pitching coins at a crack in the pavement—and playing marbles for keeps.

New Khrushchev Peace Plan Confronts Kennedy With a Difficult Gamble

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy was faced upon his return from Europe today with a decision on whether to treat Soviet Premier Khrushchev's new proposals as propaganda or as a real opening toward an East-West accord.

The Soviet leader, in a major address in East Berlin, called in vague terms for a ban on atmospheric nuclear tests and a non-aggression pact between the rival NATO and Warsaw military alliances.

A radio-monitored text of Khrushchev's speech began arriving at the State Department Tuesday as Kennedy headed home-ward. Washington authorities promptly started a careful analysis, but found many questions unanswered.

A State Department press officer, Robert J. McClosky, declined immediate comment.

Initial private reactions among other officials ranged widely from speculation that a break in the cold war logjam may be in sight to an assessment that Khrushchev intends only to reap a propaganda harvest at the West's expense.

All agreed that important details needed to be clarified.

Kennedy must decide soon how to deal with the Khrushchev proposal, for he is sending Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman to Moscow for renewed test ban negotiations starting July 15. The East Berlin speech rates as the main recent indicator of the Soviet position on this issue. But officials here raised these major questions about the Khrushchev offer:

1. Is Khrushchev proposing an unimposed moratorium on underground atomic explosions in addition to a ban on other nuclear tests?

Khrushchev said the Soviet Union will agree to outlawing "nuclear tests in the atmosphere, in

Pair Taken by FBI as Red Spies

By JOSEPH E. MOHAWT

WASHINGTON (AP)—The FBI has arrested two couples on charges of conspiring to steal data on U.S. missile bases and other military information for Moscow.

One of the couples is Russian—the husband is a personnel officer in the U.N. secretariat.

The arrests Tuesday in Washington and on Long Island followed by one day a U.S. order for expulsion of a Soviet Embassy official for attempting to recruit a Russian-born U.S. intelligence official to spy for the Reds. But the FBI said there is no link between the two cases.

According to a complaint filed in a New York federal court, the four arrested "Tuesday conspired with at least two Soviet military intelligence men to transmit to the Russians information on U.S. military installations and troop movements."

These included top-priority missile bases, it was learned. The four were ordered held without bail after preliminary hearings before U.S. commissioners. Hearings were postponed to July 16 to give the couples time to secure lawyers.

Seized in a raid on a Flushing, Long Island, apartment were Ivan Dmitrievich Egorov, 41, and his wife, Aleksandra Egorova, 39. Egorov is a personnel officer in the U.N. secretariat.

The FBI said the couple resisted arrest and the woman "put up a terrific struggle" and had to be carried away by agents.

The pair seized in a Washington apartment denied their guilt at a hearing.

While the FBI called them "John and Jane Doe" in its complaint, it said they were living under the names of Robert Keistutis Balch and Joy Ann Garber, or Joy Ann Balch. The names were taken, the FBI said, from innocent citizens—a Roman Catholic priest and a Connecticut housewife.

The FBI would not discuss the background of the Balch couple—even to say whether they, too,

Ward Bound Over on a Vice Charge

By HAL R. COOPER

LONDON (AP)—A magistrate's court today ordered Dr. Stephen Ward, U.S.-educated osteopath, held for trial on vice charges.

Police claim Ward, 50, is a central figure in the John Profumo-Christine Keeler sex and security scandal which has shaken the Conservative government to its foundations.

After a three-day preliminary hearing, Judge Leo Gradwell ruled that Ward must answer before a jury charges ranging from living on the earnings of prostitutes to procuring an abortion.

The trial will be held in London's famous Old Bailey court, probably in September.

Ward has proclaimed his innocence. He has not denied that Miss Keeler, a 21-year-old redhead whose involvement with Profumo led to the latter's resignation as war minister, was his protegee, along with various other party girls.

A crown prosecutor declared that Ward provided bedrooms for girls in two flats he rented in London, and took a cut of the proceeds.

Headquarters for the goings-on, Prosecutor Mervyn Griffith-Jones asserted, was an apartment in Wimpole Mews on the city's gay West Side.

It was hinted that weird sexual acts took place at both flats, with transparent mirrors providing on-lookers with a view.

An apparent attempt by the prosecutor to develop this point was thwarted by one of his own witnesses, Margaret Ricardo, admitted prostitute.

Miss Ricardo refused to describe the nature of a sexual performance she conceded having had with at least one man at the Ward residence.

There already are eight charges against Ward, including managing a brothel, living off the proceeds of prostitution, procuring underage girls for men and aiding abortions.

Magistrate Leo Gradwell noted that it was possible there could be a ninth charge based on Miss Ricardo's testimony. The nature of this possible charge was not specified.

Earlier two girls who said they knew Ward had testified to having abortions.

One said Ward had made her pregnant and that her abortion was arranged and witnessed by Miss Keller, 21, identified by the prosecution as the star of a stable of Ward party girls.

The other girl said she was pregnant by her boy friend, but that she got in touch with an abortionist through the American-educated osteopath.

NLR Man Dies in Auto Crash

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Harold Lynn Brady, 19, of North Little Rock, was killed Tuesday when the truck he was driving hit a power pole.

Brady was thrown out and pinned beneath the truck. Officers and passerby lifted the truck off the boy, but he was dead on arrival at a North Little Rock hospital. The accident occurred in the Prothro Junction area of North Little Rock.

New Rules on Rails; Strike Is Apparent

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's railroads announced today they will put into effect next Thursday new work rules which operating unions have said would result in a rail strike.

The action almost certainly will throw the dispute to Congress for some means of averting a nationwide rail tieup.

President Kennedy announced last month that unless the dispute was settled by July 10 he would "make such recommendations to the Congress as these circumstances appear to dictate."

The railroads' plans were announced by their chief negotiator, J.E. Wolfe, who said there has been a "complete breakdown" in negotiations.

Wolfe, chairman of the National Railway Labor Conference, said the operating unions had refused to accept any of the recommendations of either of two presidential boards which had been named to help resolve the dispute.

He said the unions' refusal has "brought an end to the hollow mockery of collective bargaining on the issues involved."

"Thus, the period of grace requested by President Kennedy and agreed to by both the unions and management, will end on July 10 with the featherbedding dispute remaining unresolved," Wolfe told a news conference.

"The issues involved here have twice been submitted to impartial presidential boards of the highest competence and the railroads have accepted the recommendations of these boards even though they contained more than generous concessions to the unions."

Wolfe said that since every step of the Railroad Labor Act has been exhausted in an effort to reach an agreement with the unions, the companies today notified the unions that the new rules will be put into effect at 12:01 a.m. on Thursday, July 11.

Wolfe said, however, that as far as the carriers are concerned this does not preclude consideration of any "constructive suggestions by the President, the secretary of labor or any interested party."

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz had arranged to re-enter the talks today in an effort to resolve the dispute.

State Law Hits Many Marriages

VACAVILLE, Calif. (AP)—A marriage mixup that sparked plans for a mass wedding at Star City, Ark. has drawn the interest of former Arkansians living at Vacaville—and a few couples may return home to check into the matter.

About 75 ex-Arkansians couples live in Vacaville, but each family arrived separately and are not members of a "colony" or similar group.

The mixup came when a Star City couple checked into an announcement by the Little Rock office of Social Security Administration that it would not pay wives' or widows' benefits to persons not legally married under Arkansas law.

A 1941 law, they found, makes void any marriage in which the groom was under the legal age of 18 or the bride under 16.

They placed an ad in a newspaper reading, "Mass Marriage, Bring your Children."

The story won national attention and caught the eye of the California couples.

As many as 30 who came to this California community may be affected.

A. D. Lewellen, a victim of the law, says he doesn't plan to return to Arkansas, but may marry his wife in Vacaville.

"I understand a few couples left Monday to check up," he said.

Claude B. Hurley Jr., whose marriage is not affected by the law, said, "a few people tell me they are going back there to be remarried."

blue waited with their own traditional flags.
But this time there was to be no struggle—not even the firing of a blank cartridge. The din of battle was to be simulated by an elaborate stereophonic system for the benefit of the audience gathered on Cemetery Ridge where the Union troops under Gen.
George Gordon Meade took their stand.
Meeting on the ridge, the 1,000
men were to join in brotherhood
and pledge devotion to the Stars and Stripes as a symbol of unity.
The dramatization was the grand finale of a commemoration of the three-day battle. Tuesday an estimated 35,000 people lined the streets to witness a two-hour
long pageant-parade.
There were only 13 casualties—
a dozen dead prostrations and one hornet sting.

EDITOR'S NOTE—The decisive Battle of Gettysburg fought 100 years ago, spread horror and carnage around the little Pennsylvania town and ended with a once-proud Confederate army in retreat, its hopes of penetrating the North in force forever smashed.
Here is the way a correspondent
at the scene might have reported
the climactic battle.

By TOM HENSHAW
GETTYSBURG (AP) — The Union army won a smashing defensive victory today over the Confederate forces of Gen. Robert E. Lee, turning back his invasion of the North.

The climax of the great three-day battle at Gettysburg came at 3 p.m. this hot, humid afternoon when 15,000 Confederates under Gen. George E. Pickett assaulted
the center of the Federal line.
They were hurled back with heavy losses after Brig. Gen. Lewis A. Armistead, 46, of Virginia, and 150 men momentarily penetrated the defenses on Cemetery
Ridge. Armistead was killed.
Brig. Gen. John D. Imboden late tonight quoted Gen. Lee as saying: "We must return to Virginia."

Losses in killed, wounded and missing during the three-day battle were estimated at 23,049 for the Union Army of the Potomac
and 28,063 for the Confederate Army of Northern Virginia.

The assault by Pickett's division and those of Brig. Gen. Johnston Pettigrew and Maj. Gen. Isaac R.
Trimble was launched after one of the greatest artillery barrages ever seen on the North American continent.
About 3 p.m., the artillery fell
silent and the men of Pickett, Trimble and Pettigrew began their long march across the valley
between Seminary and Cemetery Ridges.

"Every eye could see (the) legions," reported Lt. Frank A. Haskell of the 2nd Corps, "an overwhelming resistless tide of an ocean of armed men sweeping upon us!"

"Regiment after regiment and brigade after brigade moved from the woods and rapidly took their places in the lines forming the assault . . . magnificent, grim, irresistible."

The Federal cannon opened fire.

Confederate Capt. H. T. Owen
described the scene like this:
"Round shot, bounding along the plain, tore through their ranks
and ricocheted around them;
shells exploded incessantly in blinding, dazzling flashes before them, behind them, overhead and among them."

"Frightful gaps were made from center to flank, yet on swept the column, and as it advanced the men steadily closed up the wide rents made along the line
in a hundred places at every discharge of the murderous batteries
in front."

Gen. Armistead and his gallant 150 reached the Federal defensive wall and clashed hand-to-hand with the Philadelphia Brigade led by Brig. Gen. Alexander Webb, 28.

Armistead died with his hand
on a Union cannon; his 150 men were quickly killed or captured;
the great Confederate charge rolled back down the ridge and fled across the valley to safety.

Confederate Brig. Gen. Richard
B. Garnett also was killed. Brig.
Gen. James L. Kemper was wounded and captured, wiping out all Pickett's brigade commanders. Division leaders Pettigrew and Trimble were wounded.

On the Union side, Corps commander Maj. Gen. Winfield S.
Hancock and division commander, Brig. Gen. John Gibbon, were wounded. Gibbon's division of Hancock's corps bore the brunt of the assault.

It's raining tonight as Gettysburg as Lee prepares to begin the long, sad march south with his beaten army, a wagon train of wounded 17 miles long, down muddy roads and across swollen streams.

It is believed that Maj. Gen.
George G. Meade will make no effort at pursuit. His cavalry commander, Maj. Gen. Alfred Pleasanton, told him tonight:

"I will give you half an hour
to show yourself a great general.
Order the army to advance, while I take the cavalry and get in Lee's rear, and we will finish the campaign in a week."

"How do you know Lee will not attack me again?" asked Meade,
and he added: "We have done well enough."

Air Attack
Shelters Are Sought Here

By GORDON BROWN
WASHINGTON — Stewart K.
Prosser, Arkansas Civil Defense
Director, says his state is much interested in the development of a community fallout shelter program.

Prosser testified recently before a House Armed Services subcommittee considering the subject and outlined the situation in Arkansas.

Since the Cuban crisis,
his agency has received numerous letters, visits and inquiries from citizens interested in some program, especially the possibility of one in which the government would provide financial and technical assistance.

And, he reported, most citizens
have shown a preference for community shelters rather than home or private shelters. The prime reason for this, he said, is the desire of individuals to be a part of large groups in time of stress.

Prosser conceded that some persons ridicule the whole idea as unnecessary. But, he added, "this is not the true feeling of the same individuals when a crisis appears
—they become alarmed and want to know why the government has not done something to protect them."

Arkansas, he said, now has about 316,000 shelter spaces in accessible buildings, most of them
in the larger cities of Little Rock, Fort Smith, Pine Bluff, El Dorado, Hot Springs and Fayetteville.

But because there are little or no shelter spaces in the rural or small town areas, he said, the rural population would be exposed to radioactive fallout resulting from nuclear attack.

But even though the cities are better off than the rural areas,
they still need additional shelter
space, he said.

He also said there are 70,000
shelter spaces located in 68 caverns in Arkansas. But most of these, he said, would require upgrading if occupied for extended periods of time. He said his agency has requested federal funds for such upgrading.

Arkansas Congressional delegation has split 4-2 on the question of providing additional $45 million for the Area Redevelopment program.

When the House recently defeated the proposal by a 5-vote margin
—204 to 209—Reps. Wilbur Mills,
Oren Harris and James Trimble,
Democrats, supported the bill,
while Rep. E. C. Gathings, D., voted against it.

When a similar bill came before the Senate, Arkansas two Senators split. Sen. J. W. Fulbright,
D., voted for the bill, which passed 65-30, while Sen. John L. McClellan, D., voted against it.

Fulbright spoke in support of the measure, saying the ARA program means much to an industrially underdeveloped state such as Arkansas.

He listed the 10 ARA projects
approved at that time for Arkansas and said they would provide for 2,680 direct new jobs.

These projects are in the counties of Baxter, Sevier, Lincoln,
Johnson, Cleburne, Izard, Van Buren, Independence and Conway
and one is in these seven counties
— Independence, Izard, Stone,
Sharp, Fulton, Cleburne, and Van Buren.

No opposition has been sighted
as yet to the nomination of Pat McHaffy, Little Rock, as judge of the 8th Federal Circuit Court.

Recently the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People raised some questions
—but did not object—in the hearing for Harry Phillips, Nashville, Tenn., for the 6th Circuit Court.
The question was raised as to whether Phillips had helped draft legislation designed to obstruct school integration. Phillips had answers satisfactory to the Senate Judiciary subcommittee.

However, this brought up the question as to whether the NAACP might be scrutinizing all southern judicial appointments.

Clarence Vitchell of the NAACP
said that while his organization
did look at the appointments in a general way he had no word at this moment of any questions being raised from Arkansas to Mchaffy.

In any case, McHaffy will be before a sympathetic subcommittee
at his hearing here July 8. Heading the subcommittee will be Sen.
John L. McClellan, D - Ark., a sponsor and long-time friend of McHaffy, and Sens. Olin Johnston,
D - S.C., Sam Ervin, D - N.C., Everett Dirksen, R-Ill., and Roman Hruska, R-Neb.

outer space and under water."
The West has proposed such a partial ban too, saying it can be policed by detection systems
based outside the Soviet Union.

The Soviets always have conditioned acceptance of a partial ban
by insisting also on an inspection-free moratorium of indefinite length on underground shots. This has been refused by the West, which contends that on-the-spot inspections are needed to safeguard against sneak explosions below ground.

2. Did Khrushchev put his test ban and nonaggression pact offers in one inseparable package?

The Soviet leader said that for the sake of easing international tensions "it is also necessary to take another major step" in addition to a test ban agreement: the signing of "a nonaggression pact between the two main military blobs—the NATO countries and the Warsaw Pact states."

Washington analysts said this language did not make it clear whether Khrushchev was saying the two issues must be settled together.

3. What conditions did Khrushchev have in mind for the nonag-gression pact, particularly in relation to Communist East Germany?

Particularly objectionable to the West in the past have been Moscow conditions for a nonaggression pact which would enhance the status of East Germany.

There is some hope in official quarters that the Kremlin has come to such a point in its military situation and in its dispute with Red China that it wants to start reaching some form of accommodation with the West.

the complaint are Russian U.N.
employees Aleksei Galkin, 45, and Petr Egorovich Maslennikov, 43, both of whom left for Russian in May.

These and other members of Soviet military intelligence, the FBI said, conspired with the two couples "to communicate, deliver and transmit to Russian information relating to United States military and Navy installations, troop movements, shipping and military waterfront facilities."

McKinley Is Straight Set
Winner

By JOHN FARRO
Associated Press Sports Writer
WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—
Chuck McKinley of St. Louis,
America's No. 1 player, paraded
through Wilhelm Bungert of Germany, 6-2, 6-4, 8-6 today, to reach the finals of the Wimbledon Tennis Championships for the second time in three years.

McKinley, who has yet to lose a set in six matches, had little trouble with the lanky Bungert,
who knocked off top-seeded Roy Emerson of Australia in a five-
set quarter-final match.

McKinley was a finalist in 1961,
when he lost to Rod Laver of Australia, now a pro. No American has won at Wimbledon since Tony Trabert in 1955, and Mc-Kinley is the only American to reach the finals since that year.

Seeded fourth, McKinley who is a student at Trinity University in San Antonio, Tex., ruined the unseeded Bungert's bid to be the first German in the Wimbledon finals since Baron Gottfried von Cramm in 1937.

Schools in North Goal
of NAACP

By ULYS H. YATES
CHICAGO (AP)—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will undertake this summer a nationwide drive to end what it calls "Jim Crow segregation" in Northern schools.
Robert L. Carter, NAACP general counsel, said the drive would concentrate upon local school districts where segregated housing conditions result in schools of predominately Negro enrollment.

Carter in an interview at the NAACP's annual convention, also made these points:

1. Gradualism and compromise in the Negro drive for equality is ended. "This convention spells the end to any lingering belief that there can be any slowing down of the civil rights drive," Carter said.

2. The NAACP will work to defeat for re-election any congressman or senator who fails to vote
for a civil rights bill at this session of Congress.

Carter said that a strategy
meeting of various NAACP state councils will be held Thursday to determine what can be done at the state level to end what he termed racial unbalance in Northern schools.

Clay Named Fighter of the Month

NEW YORK (AP)—Undeclared
Cassius Clay, who stopped England's Henry Cooper in the fifth round as he had predicted, was named "Fighter of the Month"
Wednesday by Ring Magazine.
Despite his loss, Cooper, the British and Empire heavyweight champion, was boosted in the heavyweight ratings from eighth to seventh. Clay remained the No.
2 contender behind former heavyweight champion Floyd Paterson.

Price Dive
for Poultry
Is Feared

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Arkansas Department cautioned
the broiler industry today it again
may be headed for the low prices that prevailed during much of 1961.

It said a significant buildup is currently taking place in the broiler hatching egg supply.
"If this trend continues, the department said, "a massive price-depressing expansion in broiler production late this year and early next year is in prospect."

It added that the increasing supply of hatching eggs above the 1962 level already is finding its way into expanded hatchery activity.

To avoid a price situation such as that in 1961, the department said, the broiler industry could begin to reduce to a year earlier levels the number of pullets added to supply flocks, and to delay
in enlarging capacity to produce and market broilers in other sectors of the industry.

Ashdown Seeks
New Courthouse

ASHDOWN, Ark. (AP)—Plans to replace the Ashdown courthouse,
built in 1907, were announced
Tuesday by County Judge Ray H.
Sikes. Sikes said the move for replacement of the old structure was begun at a meeting of 20 of the county's business and civil leaders. The county will seek federal funds under the Area Redevelopment Act to help finance the new building, Sikes said.

Carter said that where possible
the NAACP will seek rulings outlawing racial "unbalance" by state education commissioners similar to one recently made in New York.

Appointed by Mission Board

ATLANTA — Among 21 missionaries appointed by the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention was Mrs. Robert E. (Wanzell Nix) Rodriguez, of Texarkana, Ark. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Nix of Hope.

Mrs. Rodriguez was named to serve with her husband in work with the Spanish-speaking people in Denver, Colo. She studied nursing at Baylor University, graduating from Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, Texas. She has worked as a nurse in Dallas, Texas and in Howell, Mich.

Appointment came during the June Board meeting, with a commissioning service held later at a Wieuca Road Baptist Church in Atlanta. The services came after a week of orientation of the missionaries who raised the total under appointment by the mission agency to 2,171.

DOROTHY DIX

IS A MOTHER TO BLAME FOR DAUGHTER'S EARLY DATING?

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: Have you any advice for a mother who encourages her 12-year-old daughter to date? The woman has no thought for the child's serious education. Her only concern is putting the little girl up to beau-catching.

I wish you would discuss this problem in your column and give that mother something to think about. My advice to the mothers of children like this would be: Take them to good shows and Sunday school. Interest them in getting an education first so that the husband and home will be all the better for the waiting.

I know of a certain mother who is always maneuvering to pair her 12-year-old daughter off with a little boy who will inherit money one day. Another is doing the same about her little girl and a boy whose well-to-do parents have already enrolled him at a fine college where he is to study law. Why start campaigning at such an early date? Believe me, half the time it's the mothers, not the daughters, who are to blame for the enforced marriages that inevitably follow. I hope the guilty ones read this letter and your reply. —Concerned

Dear Concerned: Your concern is by no means unique. It is shared by a growing number of psychologists, sociologists, and plain, old garden variety observers of the human scene, like you and me.

Countless words have been written and spoken on the subject of the reversal of male and female roles. The American male has become the pursued and the female, the pursuer. This phenomenon is certainly widespread through the United States, in all types of communities, particularly in the middle-class suburbs.

Matriarchal pressures assume many guises, ranging from subtle suggestion to Machiavellian maneuvering —to use your apt description of the plotting by the mother of the 12-year-old. Recently a school superintendent remarked, "It's positively indecent the way mothers glow with smug satisfaction when their fifth and sixth graders toddle off hand-in-hand with their dates."

This forcing of social relationships on children before they are in any way prepared to handle them is a tragic and deplorable trend. But why in heaven's name does the American male stand helplessly by and permit this ridiculous situation? Don't fathers have anything to say about the upbringing of their daughters? Have they completely abdicated all sense of parental responsibility other than financial?

On the younger level the boys are easy prey for these aggressive females. Why don't they demonstrate more backbone and independence? Perhaps it would be fair to say that their ego is still in the tender stage of development and not strong enough to withstand the onslaughts of the predatory female.

Perhaps the pendulum is starting to swing back again. I note that several fashionable suburban school systems have decided to cut out P.T.A. sponsored dancing classes in the elementary school. Also, for what it's worth, one of the top records of the week is entitled, "I Don't Want No Mama's Boy." (Ugh, what has happened to the English language?) Maybe Mama is losing her grip.

The first grist mill in Arkansas was constructed at the site of Evening Shade in 1817.

Dear Helen: Please tell the young sailor not to give up his girl just because he's going on a prolonged cruise. The same thing happened to me when I was the age of his girl — 16, and my sailor boy 21. He didn't want to tie me down either but after we talked the situation over I volunteered to wait the two years.

He also was on an extended Mediterranean cruise. Now he's back at his naval base, I shall soon be 18 and in four short short months we are to be married. No matter what people say, neither the 16-year-old girl nor her sailor are too young to love. She has school to keep her busy and, I know from experience, that the months fly by. —Just Trying to Be Helpful.

Dear Helpful: So far, so good. Only two years have passed in your case. I would very much like to know what your advice will be 10 or 20 years hence! For your sake, I hope and pray it will be the same. But what turns out right for one couple may be entirely wrong for another. No one denies that a 16-year-old girl can be in love. But, as I constantly preach, it takes a lot more than that to make a successful marriage. Cold statistics indicate that the divorce rate among very youthful couples is alarmingly high. For a discussion of the many other factors, besides love, involved in marriage send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "A Happy Marriage."

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Segregation End Sought Within NEA

DETROIT (AP) — The nation's classroom teachers, by sheer force of numbers, are pressuring the National Education Association to rid itself of racial segregation.

The Department of Classroom Teachers is only one of the NEA's 33 departments and commissions. Its views carry a lot of weight however, because it represents about 800,000 of the NEA's total membership of 860,000.

Monday the teachers adopted a resolution which urged "local, district and state associations to open their membership doors to all teachers, regardless of race, color or creed."

The resolution is aimed directly at 11 Southern states which have separate NEA affiliates for white and Negro teachers. The resolution was proposed by Pat Tornillo of Dade County (Miami), Fla.

The NEA, sensitive to the feelings of white teachers in the South, has been reluctant in the past to go quite this far. Generally its stand on desegregation has been a resolution commending those communities or organizations which have made progress with the problem.

Yanks Make It 5 Wins in a Row

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Fastballing young Al Downing fired the New York Yankees along with a sparkling one-hit pitching gem, and teen-aged right-hander Dave Morehead pulled the Boston Red Sox out of a spin with a two-bitter.

But the Minnesota Twins flexed batting muscle to keep their drive going in the American League Tuesday night.

Downing allowed only a bouncing single up the middle by Camilo Carreon with two out in the seventh inning in pitching the pace-setting Yankees to their fifth straight victory, a 3-0 triumph over the Chicago White Sox.

The 19-year-old Morehead lost his no-hit bid on Fred Whitfield's bad-hop single leading off the eighth inning but brought the Red Sox home over the Cleveland Indians, 6-1.

The Twins scored their eighth kays in a row, whipping Detroit 7-4 behind the home run power of Bob Allison and Jim Hall. That victory shoved streaking Minnesota into second place, three games behind New York and one-half game ahead of Chicago.

In other AL games, sub Al Smith's hitting led Baltimore over Los Angeles 4-3 and Washington's Bennie Daniels posted his second victory in six days over Kansas City, 7-2.

The Los Angeles Dodgers took the National League lead away from St. Louis, edging the Cardinals 1-0 on Don Drysdale's pitching. Elsewhere in the NL, a masterful pitching duel between San Francisco's Juan Marichal and Milwaukee's Warren Spahn was settled by Willie Mays' home run in the 16th inning that gave the Giants a 1-0 victory; Cincinnati clipped Houston 6-4; Pittsburgh squeezed by Philadelphia 3-2; and the Chicago Cubs beat the New York Mets 4-1.

The Yanks collected only their second victory in seven games this year with the White Sox and in the process defeated Ray Herbert, who had shut them out twice previously. Tony Kubek singled across the first Yankee run in the third and Hector Lopez gave downing some working room with a two-run homer in the fifth.

Morehead had a perfect game going at Cleveland until Tito Francona walked with two out in the seventh and a no-hitter in the works until Whitfield led off the eighth with a grounder that glanced off a pebble over second baseman Chuck Schilling's head for a single.

The only other hit off Morehead was a leadoff homer in the ninth by John Romano, just restored to the active list after being out five weeks with a broken hand.

Allison ran his homer total to a league high of 20, connecting with one on in the third as the Twins broke a 1-1 tie at Detroit, and Hall belted a 430-foot three-run shot in the sixth.

Dick Stigman was the winner, with help in the ninth from workhorse reliever Bill Dailey, and Bill Faul was the loser.

Smith, who replaced injured rookie outfielder Fred Valentine in the first inning at Baltimore, singled and scored in the second, singled home a run in the third,

Sternberg, Top Vaulter, Paralyzed

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—Brian Sternberg, who has vaulted higher than any other athlete in the world, lay partially paralyzed in a hospital today following an accident incurred while he worked out on a trampoline.

Sternberg whose 16-foot, 8-inch vault is pending as a world record, was hurt Tuesday evening as he practiced with the University of Washington gymnastics team. He was rated as one of the country's top trampoline performers.

Doctors said X rays indicated a dislocation of the cervic vertebra and possible damage to the spinal cord. They described the injury as critical, but after several hours of consultation ruled out immediate surgery.

Doctors would not say Sternberg's neck was broken, but did not discount the possibility of a fracture in the intricate series of bones involved. He was placed in traction.

A modest, personable blond, Sternberg set the pending world record at the Cornpton Invitation Meet June 7. He first conquered the 16-foot barrier at Milwaukee last March when he soared 16-3 1/2. He cleared 16-5 in April and 16-7 two weeks before his record mark. Only a sophomore this past season, Sternberg never was defeated.

Sternberg was to have competed for the United States in the Soviet Union later this month. The Seattle star, who just turned 20, rarely practiced pole vaulting, but kept in shape working out on the trampoline.

Baltimore Players Get Stiff Fines
By GORDON BEARD

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles, apparently tired of their own mistakes, have decided to clamp down on violators with self-imposed fines.

A check list of 25 violations—six of them for pitchers alone and 19 for everyone on the squad—went into effect Tuesday. The fines range from $1 to $5.

"We don't know if it will improve our play or not," said Mike McCormick, the team's player representative and one of four players who drew up the regulations. "But it will make all of us more conscious of our jobs."

and doubled in the Orioles' deciding run in the seventh. Daniels, whose only two victories this season are over the Athletics, turned in his first complete game in nine starts. The Senators settled things against loser Orlando Pena with three earned runs in the fifth on three Kansas City errors a sacrifice and two bloop hits.

It's possible some of us haven't been thinking baseball as much as we should."

Almost as soon as the plan became operative, Manager Billy Hitchcock was charged with the first offense when he walked into the clubhouse at 5:12 p.m. That's 12 minutes late, according to rule 19 which says everyone should report three hours before a home game.

Once Tuesday's game got under way, Dick Brown drew a fine of $1 for failing to score a runner from third base in the second inning with less than two out.

The $5 fines include such misdeeds as missing a sign, using profane language before the fans, and mental errors. The last violation adds the notation: "manager and coaches included."

The Orioles, who have dropped 24 of their last 36 games, can be thankful the fines were not made retroactive.

"If we had started this Monday night," Al Smith said, "we'd have $20 in the pot already."

Tentative plans call for donating the money to charity at the end of the season.

Dodgers Take Lead From Cardinals

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Not even Carl Hubbell would deny that the Giants have a new Meal Ticket—Juan Marichal.

Exactly 30 years—to the day—after Hubbell, the original Meal Ticket, pitched his greatest game by hurling the Giants to a 1-0, 18-inning triumph over St. Louis Marichal came up with an amazingly similar performance in a 1-0, 16-inning victory over Milwaukee Tuesday night.

Marichal, a strong-armed right-hander who earlier this season pitched a no-hitter, battled for 4 hours and 10 minutes with Braves starter Warren Spahn, the 42-year-old left-hander. Then, Willie Mays hit one out of Candlestick Park with one out in the last of the 16th, bringing a dramatic and sudden ending to one of baseball's greatest pitching battles.

The struggle also stole the National League spotlight from the Los Angeles Dodgers, who took over first place from St. Louis by beating the Cardinals 1-0 on Don Drysdale five-hit pitching and Ron Feitly's run-scoring single.

The triumph moved the Dodgers out front by one-half game over the Cardinals, with the third-place Giants another one-half game back. Fourth-place Cincinnati crept to within 2 1/2 games of the top as Gordy Coleman's tie-breaking two-run single carried the Reds to a 6-4 decision over Houston.

The fifth-place Chicago Cubs downed the New York Mets 4-1 and Pittsburgh edged Philadelphia 3-2.

The American League-leading New York Yankees blanked the Chicago White Sox 3-0 on Al Downing's one-hitter, Minnesota took over second by defeating Detroit 7-4, Boston belted Cleveland 6-1. Baltimore nipped the Los Angeles Angels 4-3 and Washington took Kansas City 7-2.

Marichal bringing his record vic 13-3 with his ninth straight victory, scattered eight hits and struck out 10. Mays saved him in the fourth inning with a rifle throw from center field that cut down Norm Larker at the plate as he tried to score from second on Del Crandall's single.

Spahn, now 11-4, had pitched 27 consecutive scoreless innings going into the 16th. He had allowed only eight hits and had struck out two while issuing only one walk—an intentional pass to Mays. He got the first out, then Mays hit the first pitch to him over the left field fence and stuck a candle in Hubbell's anniversary cake.

Fairly got Drysdale, 10-9, the run he needed in the seventh after Frank Howard singled and reached second on Bill Skowron's infield out. That left Simmons' record at 7-4.

Trailing 3-2, the Reds scored the tying run in the seventh inning against the Colts on a run-producing double by Vada Pinson, who has hit in 20 straight games. Coleman then came through with his key single, winning it for Bob Purkey, 3-4. Don McMahon, 0-3, was the loser.

The Cubs exploited a throwing error by Mets pitcher Al Jackson, 6-8, scored three unearned runs in the second inning and held on behind the six-hit hurling of Bob Buhl, 7-5. Jackson threw Buhl's run away in the second after Andre Rodgers had singled, and a sacrifice fly by Lou Brock a single by Ellis Burton and Billy Williams' double did the rest of the damage.

Ted Maryman Gets 25-Year Pin From State Highway Department

TED C. N. MARYMAN, RIGHT, ASSISTANT MAINTENANCE superintendent for the State Highway Department at Hope, received a handshake along with his award for 25 years service at the Highway Commission meeting in Little Rock June 26. Acting Highway Director Ward Goodman presented the award.

Ted C. N. Maryman, assistant maintenance superintendent for the State Highway Department at Hope, was presented a 25-year service award by the Highway Commission at their meeting in Little Rock last week.

Maryman graduated from Byrd High School in Shreveport. While still in high school he worked as a drug clerk and continued after graduation until he qualified as a pharmacist under the apprenticeship plan which was allowed then. Maryman found pharmacy confining and gave it up for a few years of farming and one year with the State Revenue Department before settling down to a career with the highway department.

He is a Masonic Knight's Commander of Hope and past Patron of the Hope Chapter of Eastern Star. He is married to the former Miss Lena Mae Henry, also of Hope. Maryman is a member of First Methodist Church and a member of the Century Bible Class. They reside at 505 South Walker.

4-Hour Ball Game Duel Is Thriller

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "I said to myself three times, 'This will be my last inning.' " weary Juan Marichal said quietly. "Each time I went out there again."

"When Willie (Mays) was in the circle waiting to bat, I called to him 'Hit one now.' Everyone laughed at me, but Willie did it."

It was the 16th inning in Candlestick Park where Marichal and Milwaukee's Warren Spahn had duelled 4 hours and 10 minutes of scoreless baseball.

Spahn threw a screwball, the pitch that got him out of trouble so many times. Mays belted a home run over the left field fence, deciding the issue 1-0 for the Giants.

Exactly 30 years after Carl Hubbell on July 2, 1933, had blanked St. Louis 1-0 in 18 innings, Marichal had his 13th victory of the season in a game with almost as many shutout innings.

"That was the greatest game I've ever seen by two pitchers," Giants Manager Alvin Dark said. Marichal threw 227 pitches, the 42-year-old Spahn 201. Both admitted being a little tired, but both were going all out all the way.

Mays and the Candlestick wind both could be credited with assists in the pitching shutout. In the fourth inning, the Braves' Hank Aaron powered a drive to left field, tickled for his 23rd homer of the year, but the wind held it back. By midnight, however, the wind had virtually died.

"The wind helped me against right-handers, but you have to be so very careful with the left-handers when the wind is blowing here," the 25-year-old Marichal said.

"I was throwing a lot of fast balls and changes out there."

On June 14, the right-hander from the Dominican Republic, who originally signed into the organization for just $500, became the first Giant to throw a no-hitter since Hubbell did in 1929. Juan blanked Houston 1-0 that day.

Winning the marathon left the Giants just one game behind the National League-leading Los Angeles Dodgers. Spahn, who beat Los Angeles 1-0 last Friday and had a string of 27 scoreless innings, said: "I threw Mays a screwball that hung. It didn't do a thing. The thing that makes me mad is that I had thrown some good screwballs to Harvey Kuenn just before Willie came to bat. Then that first pitch to him hung."

Mays' first hit in the major league back in 1951 was a home run off Spahn.

Buffs Beat Travelers by 7 to 5

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — The Buffalo Bisons tapped the Travelers for three home runs, one a bases-loaded grand slam, to down Arkansas 7-5 Tuesday night and end a four-game losing streak.

In other International League baseball action, Atlanta squeaked by Indianapolis 6-5 in a 10-inning affair, Rochester stomped Syracuse 10-5 and Toronto nipped Richmond 3-2. The Jacksonville at Columbus game was rained out.

All the homers came off losing pitcher Paul Brown. Ed Bouhoco connected for the first one in the opening inning. Marv Throneberry belted his grand slam in the third to knock out a 3-2 deficit, then Joe Christopher smacked one over in the fourth to give the Bisons a 7-3 lead.

Christopher, out of the line-up since June 23, picked up his 17th homer of the year and backed it up with a double.

Norm Gigon's two-run homer in the fifth sparked the Travelers to repeated challenges, which the Bisons promptly put down. Arkan-

Downing, 22, Is Yankees' Newest Star

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—"You were looking at the next ace of the Yankee pitching staff," New York Manager Ralph Houk said. "He can be another Koufax."

"He can't miss," said Yankee catcher Elston Howard. "That boy is overpowering."

The object of the fancy adjectives was Al Downing, 22-year-old Yankee left-hander who limited Chicago to one hit in a 3-0 shutout of the White Sox Tuesday night and increased the Yanks' American League lead to three full games.

He had a no-hitter going until Camilo Carreon singled up the middle with two out in the seventh inning.

Downing got the tip of his glove on it but the ball had enough bounce to get past shortstop Tony Kubek and spin into the outfield. "He hit it good but I should have had it," said Downing.

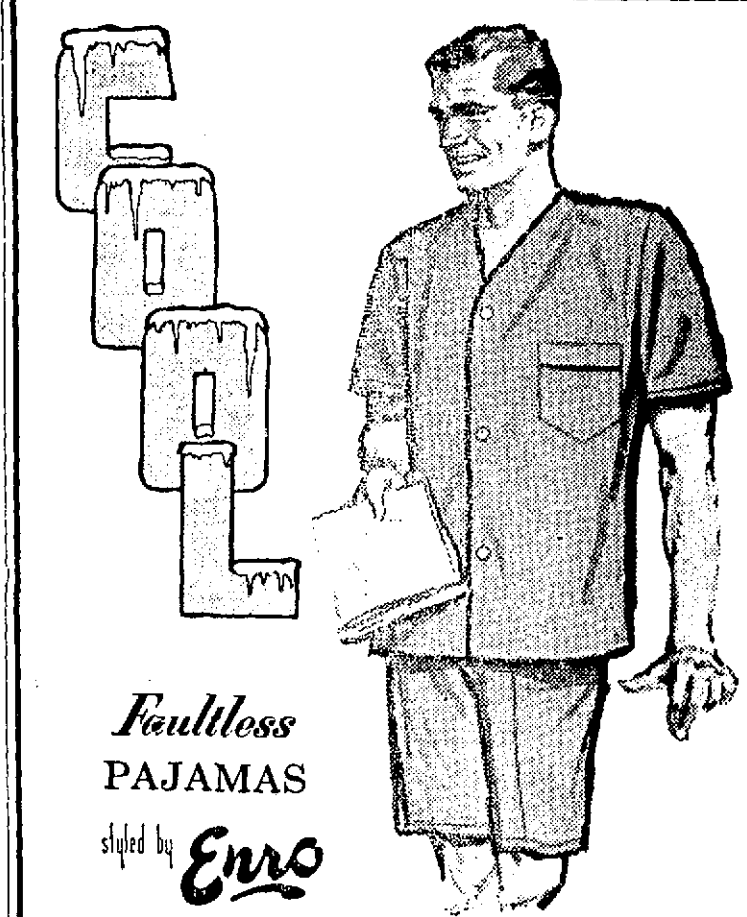

"Naturally, I would have liked to get the no-hitter," he said. "But I don't feel badly about it. This will only make me work harder in the hope that I can get it another time."

Downing's performance drew praise from Howard, who called every pitch for the 22-year-old left-hander. He said: "There are not many faster pitchers in baseball than this kid. His arm is as good as that of anybody on the club."

It was the third victory in four decisions for Downing who was called up from Richmond a month ago.

Houk compared him with left-handed ace Sandy Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

kees, allowed only one hit, a bouncing single up the middle by Camilo Carreon in the seventh inning, and pitched the American League leaders to their fifth straight victory, 3-0 over the Chicago White Sox.
